

Inviting the Bell

Chalice Lighting by Rev. Scott Taylor
*We gather knowing that our light can't reconstitute itself.
Without each other a coldness sits in. Leaning on each other, trusting each other, helping each other fall back in love with life over and over again—only from this does the flame emerge. Today, may it rise again.*

Passing the Peace “Peace be with you”

Hymn #323 “Break Not the Circle”

Welcome

Covenant First Unitarian Church of Des Moines Bond of Union
We covenant to associate ourselves together for the study and practice of morality and religion, as interpreted by the growing thought and noblest lives of humanity, hoping thereby to prove helpful one to another and to promote truth, righteousness and love in the world.

Hymn #324 “Where My Free Spirit Onward Leads”

Extinguishing the Chalice by Rev. Linda Barnes
*May you embrace your growing with compassion.
May courage be yours as you answer your heart’s calling.
May beauty and wonder be yours even when the going gets rough. And may love always be at your center.*

*Spoken Benediction

Sung Benediction #1058 "Be Ours a Religion"

TODAY'S FORUM: Greater DSM Civil Rights Tour

Did you know that the Supreme Court of Iowa in 1868 ruled that public school segregation was unconstitutional, 86 years before Brown versus Board of Education? Come learn more about this and the many sites (18 in all) that comprise Catch DM Greater Des Moines Civil Rights Tour. Russ Lovell, primary researcher and writer of the website (and good friend of First Unitarian) will take you on the visual tour, highlighting and expanding on a few sites with particularly interesting and often surprising histories that occurred right here in Des Moines and Iowa. Of course, the Edna Griffin Building and Bridge will be noted! There will be time for questions and comments."
