Stonewall Conference Room

Let's take a tour of the First Unitarian building so you can feel more comfortable. First we see the Office and Stonewall Conference Room.

If we take a walk down the hall, you will pass by Griffin Hall, the Kitchen, and the Gathering Area.

From this hall, you will see one set of stairs going to the lower level.
There is also one set of bathrooms here, too.

The last place to visit on the main floor is the Mary Safford Auditorium. In this room is the Audio Visual Booth, the seating area, and the stage.

These are some of the adults you might see in church on Sundays.

Karen, Bruce, Barbara, Rev. Steve

Anne, Naoma, Faithyna, Destiny

But there are other people who work at the church during the week, too.

Every single one of these people care about you. They want you to feel safe and loved here at First Unitarian Church of Des Moines.

So, why do we come to First Unitarian Church of Des Moines?

People come for many different reasons. Here are just a few!

To feel safe and make new friends

To share joys and concerns

To play music together and learn together

To work together to make a better world...and have fun!

Most importantly, people come to First Unitarian to be with friends who like them just for being exactly who they are.
