Art Gallery Policy

- 1. Hold monthly art shows in Channing Hall including a variety of styles, media and themes throughout the year.
- 2. Show only original art presented by the artist.
- 3. Show only art that can be hung on the wall.
- 4. Display primarily adult artists with priority to members of First Unitarian Church.
- 5. Display the art of church youth in group shows, e.g., Coming of Age.
- 6. Hold a show around the time of graduation for any young person who has grown up in the church and is planning to attend art school or major in art. If more than one new graduate qualifies and is interested, hold a group show.
- 7. Select the artists at the Art Gallery Committee's discretion.
- 8. Schedule art shows for individual artists not more than every three years.
- 9. Allow the artist to bring additional artwork for sale only during the meet-the-artist.
- 10. Facilitate a reception for the artist, if desired, if an Art Gallery Committee member and space in Channing Hall are available.
- 11. Expect the artist to handle all sales and to reimburse First Unitarian Church for five percent of any sales.
